STORY OF VILLAGE OF ST. PIERRE-JOLYS

The Village of St-Pierre-Jolys is home to many Métis and French people, whose heritage reaches all the way back in history to the birth of Manitoba. Two years after the creation of Manitoba in 1870, twenty Métis families had a vision to settle along the Rat River.

The land now known as the Village of St. Pierre-Jolys had been locally developed at the time as a wintering spot for cattle in Saint Norbert, when the first parish priest of St. Pierre Father Jean-Marie Jolys, under the guidance of Bishop Tach and Abb Ritchot, set forward the first vision for development in the Village.

When the Village first incorporated in 1947, the town was known to many as the Town of Rat River, named after its dense woodland and species-rich watercourses that extend from the Seine River. Nature and productive soils surrounding the town has always been a driving force for the local economy, which is demonstrated by the town's ability to attract business and residents steadily over time.

Since its incorporation, the Village has continued to be a hub for servicing and supporting Manitoba's agricultural, manufacturing and construction industries. Today, many people in the Village have strong historical and cultural ties to St. Pierre-Jolys, demonstrated by annual celebrations such as the Canadian National Frog Jumping Championship and Sugaring Off Festival.

Over the next 10 to 25 years many socio-economic, environmental, and technological trends will affect growth within rural Manitoba. The Village is a desirable community for families that want to experience a small town atmosphere and remain close to major urban areas. The Village is in a position to capitalize on smart and sustainable growth.

WHERE IS ST. PIERRE-JOLYS?

1.0 INTRODUCTION

Located in southeast Manitoba on the traditional territory of the Anishinaabeg, Cree, Oji-Cree, Dakota and Dene Peoples, and the homeland of the Red River Métis, the Village of St. Pierre has a population of 1,305 and covers 2.61 square kilometres (645 acres) of land.

The Village has a special relationship with the Métis and First Nations people located in southern Manitoba and together, are nourishing a path towards reconciliation and shared benefits.

The Village benefits from many community assets, the strongest being the large Francophone community that calls St. Pierre-Jolys home. The Village is surrounded by flat, prairie countryside, but Joubert Creek provides riparian areas on the west and south side of the Village.

The economy St. Pierre-Joly is rooted in healthcare and social assistance; agriculture, forestry, and fishing; manufacturing; and serves as a bilingual hub for shopping, culture, commerce, health, industrial supplies and distribution for neighbouring communities. There is room to grow with available, serviced land and a mobilized community ready to support land development investment.

The surrounding region consists of the Rural Municipalities of De Salaberry, Hanover, Morris, Richot, and Emerson-Franklin. This growing region is home to over 35,000 residents and contains other urban areas including Steinbach, Niverville, and Ile des Chenes, along with many smaller rural towns.

2.0 CITIZENS

POPULATION

The census population of St. Pierre-Jolys was 1,170 in 2016 and 1,305 in 2021, a change in population of roughly 11.5%. The Village has continued to grow and attract residents since 2006.

GROWTH

The Province of Manitoba predicts the South Central and Southeast regions will experience high and strong population growth. Urban areas in the region that tend to be located closer to Winnipeg have continued to experience strong growth rates. The Francophone community in St. Pierre-Jolys also continues to attract people to the Village.

AGE PROFILE

St. Pierre-Jolys is a youthful community. There is a high proportion of youth under the age of 15 and younger adults under the age of 40 with an average age of 39 years old.

LANGUAGE PROFILE

English and French are the most commonly spoken languages in St. Pierre-Jolys, with over 50% of the population speaking both French and English. Other languages spoken include Ukrainian, German, and Spanish.

SERVICE HUB & TRADE CORRIDOR

Located along Provincial Trunk Highway (PTH) 59, the Village is centrally located between the Tolstoi Port of Entry to the south, and Winnipeg to the north. The Emerson-Pembina Port of Entry is also easily accessed by Provincial Road 201 (PR) to PTH 75. The Village is a healthcare and cultural hub for the immediate area and, as the Village continues to grow, it present attractive investment opportunities.

As a healthcare centre, the Village has some established services. With a growing and aging population, St. Pierre-Jolys will see an increased demand for auxiliary healthcare services to meet the wellness needs of the Village and region.

As a large Francophone community, the Village serves as a bi-lingual hub for retail, service, and commerce. There is room to grow and provide further support services and cultural outlets for residents and visitors as well.

TARGETED RESIDENTIAL DEVELOPMENT

The village of St. Pierre-Jolys is located a short 25-minute drive south of Winnipeg and is an ideal location for those looking to escape the city, while still able to conveniently access the larger community. The Village saw a population growth of over 11% between 2016 and 2021 and shows no signs of slowing down.

The Village is well suited for residential development as it has readily available and serviceable land located within Village boundaries, near major transportation routes and existing municipal, commercial, and healthcare services making it an attractive location for all forms of residential development.

The community has much to offer current and potential residents. The Village has a full range of schools, grocery stores, recreation opportunities, and thriving cultural communities including the Francophone and Métis communities.

TOURISM & VISITOR EXPERIENCE

Tourism in St. Pierre-Jolys is driven by a strong cultural heritage with roots in the French Canadian and Métis communities. With long-standing annual festivals and attractions, the Village has a history of attracting visitors to the community.

The annual Frog Follies held every summer in the Village is a well-known event in Manitoba and will continue to thrive in St. Pierre-Jolys. With strong Francophone and Métis roots, the Village is a prime place for the expansion of cultural festivals like Festival du Voyageur or Folklorama held annually in Winnipeg.

St. Pierre-Jolys is also home to camping, golfing, and hiking opportunities. Outdoor recreation is an expanding sector in Manitoba, and with a growing population, the Village will need more recreation options to meet the needs of new residents and visitors alike.

INFORMATION TECH. & E-COMMERCE

With land available for commercial development and access to high quality digital infrastructure, the Village is an ideal location for digital creators, technology firms, and data storage. With a temperature range of (-)24 to (+)26 degrees Celsius, there are opportunities for passive heating and cooling for larger operations.

Surrounded by agricultural land, there is opportunity to provide technological, research and development, or service centres for the surrounding area. With large and small agriculture operations surrounding the Village, there are also opportunities in the environmental management and engineering industries.

As Winnipeg is a short 25-minute drive from St. Pierre-Jolys, the Village has access to educated individuals who can provide a range of technological services from graphics and animation to SAS and AI driven tools.

SABOURIN STREET /
MAIN STREET

ROADS

The junction of Sabourin Street (PTH 59) at Jolys Avenue (PR 205) is the centre of the Village connecting the City of Winnipeg to the United States border. This stretch between the City of Winnipeg and the Village is about 42 kilometres, whereas the distance between the Village and the United States border is similar, about 50 kilometres.

Besides Highway 59, the other notable roadway in the Village is Provincial Road (PR) 205. PR 205 connects east to Grunthal and on to PTH 12. To the west, PR 205 connects to PTH 75 near Aubiny, Manitoba.

RAIL

Most of Manitoba trade is imported by truck or rail. The nearest railway is approximately 6 kilometres west of the Village, which is a CP main line running parallel to PTH 59, north from the community of Otterburne and south through to the Municipality of Emerson-Franklin. The central hub for the main rail lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway (CP), Canadian National Railway Company (CN), and Burlington Northern Santa Fe (BNSF) networks are located 50 kilometres north in the City of Winnipeg.

AIR

While there are no airports or airstrips within the Village, there are several facilities in the surrounding communities, including the Altona Airport (55 km), Rosenort Airstrip (30 km), Zhoda Airport (38 km) and Steinbach Airport (22 km).

NOTABLE AIRPORTS IN THE REGION

Richardson International Airport:

- Located 60 kilometres north of St. Pierre-Jolys
- Accommodating nine carriers and 525 weekly nonstop flights, including international carriers, commuter airlines, jet freight carriers, fixed base operators, and various charter operations
- Two runways, 11,000 and 8,700 feet long

Steinbach Airport:

- Located 22 kilometres northeast of St. Pierre-Jolys
- One runway 2,900 feet long and has an asphalt surface

COMMUTE

Commute times can reveal where many residents of St. Pierre-Jolys work. In the 2016 census, 200 (or 37.4%) of the 530 respondents said they commute less than fifteen minutes to work, while 210 (or 39.3%) people said they commute thirty minutes or more to work. This would suggest that about a third of workers in the Village are commuting to other urban centers or rural communities for employment. With the proximity to other larger centres like Winnipeg and Steinbach, it is not surprising to see residents commute out of the Village for work. It does however, demonstrate that there is potential for economic development and job creation to help residents live and work within the Village.

SURROUNDING COMMUNITIES

There are many small communities beyond the immediate surrounding of St. Pierre-Jolys that contribute to the overall economy, mainly located in the surrounding rural municipalities of De Salaberry, Emerson-Franklin, Hanover, Ritchot and Morris. These are predominantly agricultural communities with limited services within town centres. These communities are dependent on St. Pierre-Jolys for healthcare, commercial, and day-to-day services.

Community	Pop. (2021)	Distance
St. Pierre-Jolys	1,305	-
Grunthal	1,782	12.8 km
St. Malo	1,323	15.1 km
Niverville	5,947	22.6 km
Ile des Chenes	1,572	30.8 km
Steinbach	17,806	32 km
Morris (town)	1,975	36.3
Winnipeg	749,607	57.6 km

Aside from Winnipeg, there are two larger urban centres; Steinbach and Niverville. Steinbach is home to nearly 18,000 residents and has large transportation, manufacturing, and agricultural facilities. Niverville has a population of 5,947 and is a predominantly residential centre with recreational facilities and strong ties to the agriculture and livestock industries.

5.0 AMENITIES

ARTS, CULTURE AND HERITAGE

Given the distinct smalltown roots being one of the first French-Canadian communities to settle in the Prairies, St. Pierre-Jolys offers many historical and cultural amenities to residents and visitors alike, including:

- Musee St. Pierre / Goulet House – Built in 1900, visitors may tour the building and view photos and artifacts. The Cabane a Sucre and Maison Goulet are located on the property.

- St-Pierre-Jolys Library – Designed by French Canadian architect Étienne Gaboury in the 1960s, this unique facility is located at the heart of the Village.
- Paroisse St. Pierre – The St-Pierre Parish is a distinct landmark of the Village and reflects the evolution of community life in the Village
- Festivals & Events – Whether it is Sugaring Off or Frog Follies, the Village is known for its welcoming community life and vibrant cultural events.

RECREATION AND PARKS

Parc Carillon and St. Pierre Arena/Community Hall together offer the benefit of sharing its location to mutually support its activities throughout the year. Our facilities are amenity-rich and include: a full-service campground, skate park and children's playground, baseball diamond and soccer field, climbing net, disc golf and outdoor fitness equipment and a splash pad.

With Parc Carillon being the centre of two trail networks – the Trans Canada Crow Wing Trail and the Joubert Creek Loop – there is truly something for everyone. Other Recreation and Parks facilities include:

- Community Gardens
- Ice Skating Trail
- Prairie Grassland Area
- Pedestrian Pavilion and Picnic Area
- Canteen and Public Washrooms

WATER & WASTE

Water

Domestic wells in the Village of St. Pierre-Jolys typically yield more than 1.0 litres per second, while the potential intermittent yield of high-capacity wells may be closer to 100 litres per second in most areas. Till-sand aquifers are layered on top of the limestone bedrock. The depths of these sand aquifers range from a few to more than (100) one-hundred meters in depth which yield from less than 0.1 litres per second to more than 10 litres per second depending on the well capacity.

A Water Use License is required for retrieving water from groundwater sources for purposes where the quantity exceeds the threshold of 25,000 litres per day. Domestic use of water, or installation of a new domestic water well, does not typically require the issuance of a Provincial Water Use License.

Wastewater Treatment

The wastewater treatment lagoon servicing the Village is located near the outside the municipal boundary, to the west. In 2018, the lagoon underwent an expansion with the construction of one new cell to increase the storage capacity of the lagoon facility with its clay core, as well as combining the existing two primary treatment cells to become one larger primary cell. A part of this expansion is a new wetland cell to reduce the total amount of phosphorus run-off.

Waste Management

The Village has partnered with Bristol Hauling to provide solid waste collection services using the landfill site in the Rural Municipality of De Salaberry. Waste collection occurs twice a week, Tuesday's and Friday's, while recycling services occurs each Wednesday by SMILE St. Malo Inc.
